

GOODMAN
PROPERTIES

For Immediate Release

Contact: Lauren Acquavella
215.885.8383
lauren@goodmanproperties.org

Goodman Properties Renovates Rockledge Shopping Center

JENKINTOWN, Pa (May 12, 2010) – Less than a year ago, Goodman Properties purchased the Rockledge Shopping Center. Since becoming owners, Goodman Properties has made the decision to reface the outdated shopping center and transform it into a modern retail strip mall.

Construction will begin in the next few weeks with plans to renovate the exterior building in order to give the entire shopping center a brand new appearance. The Rockledge Shopping Center is currently home to tenants such as Blockbuster, MJ Cleaners, Wine & Spirit, Rockledge Nail Salon and more. Goodman Properties aims to transform this once faded shopping center into a main attraction of Jenkintown on Huntingdon Pike.

-more-

About Goodman Properties

Established in 1985 by Bruce Goodman, Goodman Properties is Montgomery County's premier Real Estate Development and Management Firm. For the past 25 years, this firm has developed properties around the Delaware Valley. Today, Goodman Properties owns and manages more than 4 million square feet of diverse retail and commercial space for over 125 properties. It is our mission to not only build successful shopping centers but to also seamlessly integrate them into the surrounding community through architectural and landscape design and by establishing strong relationships with their tenants, townships officials, community groups and neighborhoods.

###